The Junior Governor's Cup is a one-day tournament held July 22 at Fort Stevenson. While it is a scaled-down version of the Walleye Cup, it is "not as competitive," explained Chad Trautman, park manager for Fort Stevenson.

"It's designed to give youth the opportunity to go out and fish," he said. "We want to provide something for them as well."

Registration begins the day

Garrison, North Dakota
Open to ages up to 17. Join in the ND Junior Governor's Cup! Prizes awarded & only charge is the park entrance fee.

There are also plenty of door prizes, as well as lunch for the families that participate. While the winners do not get the big

In the past, the numbers of attendants have "gone up and down," Trautman said. "We've seen down to 40 and up to 120." He noted that they expect 100 people this year.
