Wondering how much you should care?

I was waiting. Something I've become quite good at. I can even wait good in the rain. It goes to discipline. Recently, I was waiting outside some fitting rooms, while my companion tried on some clothes. I was in my favorite waiting position...head down chin on chest, eyes closed. At rest, I guess.

It was a small voice that bothered me. I carefully opened my left eye to see what I had to deal with.

It was a small voice because it came from a small person. A little blonde girl of perhaps two or three years. It's hard to judge a woman's age.

That little voice had inquired if it would be okay to sit beside me. Since the small person had already pulled up a little chair that was available, I assumed it was a foregone conclusion that she was planning on sitting there.

I had seen her with a young woman in the store earlier, so I asked, "Where's your mother?" She pointed to the dressing rooms. I looked at the people moving around the area and proximity of the store's back door to where we were. And, I said, "yes, you can sit beside me." I forgot to add, "but don't talk." She pulled her chair close, sat down, produced a little plastic compass from somewhere and began a long-winded dissertation on the value of owning a compass and how to read it. It was rambling and confusing just like the compass reading course I'd had in the military. Finally, she took a breath and asked if I knew which way north was. I pointed over my shoulder. She asked how I knew that. I said there was a sign on the roadway out front that said north was that way. Since we were getting personal, I asked her if she knew her right hand from her left. Adding knowing that is important in navigating with or without a compass. She thought about it and replied she did not know that. So, I pointed to one arm and then the other and named them for her. Adding just for her: For you compass readers, that is known as your "military right".

Just then, her mother appeared and thanked me for watching the little girl and they left. I assured her

Plan to Survive Severe Weather & Tornado!

Know the difference between a tornado

WATCH Conditions are favorable for tornadoes to develop

WARNING! A tornado has been sighted.

Seek shelter immediately

SIGN UP FOR ALERTS!

All Mercer & Oliver Residents wanting to receive Weather Alerts, to include Tornado Warnings on Cell phones and/or Landline phones, need to sign up through the www.mercercounty911.com website, in the "Sign Up for Alerts!" Box on the right. If you can't get on the internet you can also call 745-3302, or email creed@nd.gov, and give your name, phone number and address, requesting what notifications you want to be on. Due to Public response, the 911 Coordinator is not able to automatically sign-up all landlines for Weather Warnings like we have done in the past.

SIRENS

- The severe weather warning alarm is set off by sounding the steady tone. If the warning alarm sounds, seek shelter immediately.
- The Sirens will be tested in Mercer County Cities at 1:00 p.m. on the third Thursday of each month, and in the City of Center on the last Friday of each month at 10:00 a.m. by sounding the steady tone.
- The warble or high-low tone is for all other emergencies.

AREA SHELTER SITES

BEULAH

- Knife River Care Center (118 22nd St. NE - use front door)
- US Dept. of Agriculture Complex (1400 Hwy. 49 N., East (rear) door to basement)

PICK CITY

CENTER

ZAP

HAZEN

Don't Wait For Disaster To Strike!

Plan ahead – Take responsibility for your safety and that of your family!

- A basement is safest, preferably under a sturdy table or workbench. If you don't have a basement, go to a small interior room - like a closet or bathroom - with no windows. Keep as many walls as possible between you and the outdoors.
- If you do not have a basement, make arrangements with a relative or neighbor, or plan to use a public shelter.
- Get out of vehicles and mobile homes. If no other shelter is available, lie down outside and cover the back of your head and neck with your hands.
- Be alert for possible flooding.

TRACKS Continued from page 4

it had been interesting and no trouble. My companion who had caught the tail end of it all, noted, "I see you made another new friend. You seem to know someone where ever you go. You probably have enough friends."

"Not that many who know which direction north is," I replied.

"You attract small children like Santa Claus," she quipped. "And you might be fat but you're hardly jolly."

"I attract puppies and old women, too," I snorted. "Let's go."

"You know what?" I said. "It would have been easy for someone to grab up that child and just walk 10 steps out that back door and be gone."

"Not with 'Mr. Hyper-vigilant, see everything' sitting there," she said. She sometimes forgets that I'm 72 years old and not that much of a crime stopper anymore. That was 50 years ago. Her mother hadn't seemed worried. Maybe I worry too much about the character of the population these days. Maybe it has been so long since the Great Depression that this generation of parents doesn't know that story about the 'Picture on a Pony' man and others like him. Evil that preyed on children, minus only the pony these days.

I get chided by some folks these days because they think I've become, shall we say, "soft" and I put up with too much from people. Maybe. But, there must be something left inside of me that makes small children feel safe if they can pull their chair up beside me in a busy room and ask to sit beside me.

I do need to remember that part about no talking, though. And I need to whack a dog when it comes up and jumps on me. And, there must be some way to deal with old women who feel a constant need to correct me at every turn.

So, what about old men, you ask? Everyone knows you avoid talking to old men unless you are a small child or an old woman because they are boring, make no sense and tend to just confuse you. Talking to old men is a lot like carrying on a conversation with that voice at the fast food drive through. Same thing, over and over and over and...

I'm feeling stuck here. Does anyway know which way north or out of here is?

STAGE 1 BURN BAN FOR OLIVER & MERCER COUNTIES

As of April 23, 2019 Mercer & Oliver Counties, which includes all Cities within the counties, will be under a Stage I Burn Ban ONLY WHEN the ND Fire Danger Ratings Map shows high, very high, extreme and/or a Reg Flag warning has been issued for Mercer County and/or Oliver County. You can see ND Fire Danger Rating Map if you go to the following website and scroll down to the middle: <https://www.ndresponse.gov/burn-ban-restrictions-fire-danger-maps>

A STAGE I BURN BAN MEANS:

No controlled burns, no large pit fires and no burning garbage of any kind.
No throwing cigarette butts or anything out in a grassy area or any area that may start to burn.
No Special burning permission will be given for any reason.

BUT,

You can have a Campfire in a developed recreational site or improved site, while always keeping an eye on it. You can use grills and units that have an on/off switch in an area that you can safely operate without starting a fire.

Remember even though you are allowed some options to burn this doesn't absolve an individual or organization from liability or responsibility for any fire started by the allowed activity.

AND REMEMBER...

ANY INDIVIDUAL WHO WILLFULLY VIOLATES THIS BURN BAN IS GUILTY OF A CLASS B MISDEMEANOR (NDCC 37-17.1-10.1) PUNISHABLE BY A FINE OF UP TO $1500 AND 30 DAYS IN JAIL. THE MERCER & OLIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENTS ARE AUTHORIZED TO ISSUE CITATIONS TO VIOLATORS.

When the Burn Ban is lifted, we are asking that all controlled burns be reported to the Sheriff's office, 745-3333, when the fire starts and then another call when the fire has been extinguished, Thank You!

Please Visit www.mercercounty911.com for Fire Ban Updates.
